

Pictured with the lot one sale bull for the upcoming Millah Murrah Angus sale on Thursday, September 2, are Adam Rennie, Coonabarabran, Michael Pratton, Emms and Mooney, Blayney, Peter Grieve, Taloooby Angus, Bylong, and Terry Hanigan, "Hollywood", Coonamble. Millah Murrah principal, Ross Thompson, said he had found Beef Week very usefully timed for people to come and view the bulls without any pressure. This year's Millah Murrah open day attracted about 20 car loads, including a group which visited several properties.

About 45 groups of people went through the gates at Bannaby Angus, Taralga. Principal, Keith Kerridge, said the visitors were mainly locals but also stud breeders from South Australia. Positive comments abounded, particularly for the yearling bulls reserved for next year's inaugural sale in mid-August. Also on display were first calf heifers and mature cows and donors. He is pictured at right with his wife, Maureen, and, from left, James Mifsud, "Trilla", Goulburn, and manager of Bannaby, Glynn Langford, Taralga.
